

Research and repeated forecasts: part 1 of 2

Three fresh calls per condition; lines join means; small points and bars show draws and their range

Forecast probability

Dashed line: opening midpoint, sealed before research. Bars are observed ranges, not confidence intervals.
Annotations score the mean forecast; the primary table averages losses across calls within each question.
Question-only and research calls are separate; replicate numbers do not imply matched random draws.